

The roles and participation of the private sector in the ageing society

International Workshop – Stakeholders Cooperation in Promoting Active Ageing and Mental Health in ASEAN

Hanoi, 18 – 19 November 2020

MAKING AN IMPACT THAT MATTERS
since 1845

Speaker

Mr. Ryo Tsujimoto

Partner | Deloitte Asia Pacific

Japan Country Leader for International Development and Infrastructure and Capital Project (I&CP) Advisory Services

Mr. Tsujimoto brings over 20 years of experience as he works closely with International Donor Organizations (IDOs) and governmental agencies to support the private sector developments in emerging markets, including social infrastructure and healthcare sectors throughout the world, most notably in Southeast Asia.

Since 2018, Mr. Tsujimoto has been seconded to Deloitte South East Asia (based in Hanoi) to support various infrastructure investment and development projects in the region.

He is also supporting the introduction of private sector's best practices and experiences in elderly care business in Japan to SEA

What is the experience from Japan and how could it be applied in the context of SEA?

Key Stakeholders

The Elderly and Their Family Members
(Direct Users)

Past

- ✗ Limited services
- ✗ Facility-based
- ✗ Inefficient human resources

Today

- ✓ Based on users' needs
- ✓ Family & Home-based
- ✓ High quality elderly care

The Society /
Community

- ✗ 'Burden'
- ✗ Wrong perception
- ✗ Low social recognition of caregivers

- ✓ Elderly care market
- ✓ High-job creation
- ✓ New business development

The Government

- ✗ Lack of resources
- ✗ Rising medical expenditure

- ✓ Accessible elderly care services
- ✓ Statutory elderly care insurance
- ✓ Cost-saving effect

Comparison between selected ASEAN countries and Japan

Areas of Comparison	 Japan	 Vietnam	 Philippines
 Functional recovery support	Central concept Various services ✓	Low awareness, Limited services	Low awareness, Limited services
 Burden on Family support	Mitigated with care service, Suitable care ✓	Large burden, Sometimes Improper care	Large burden, Sometimes Improper care
 Dementia care	Treated and cared as a disease ✓	Low awareness as a disease	Low awareness as a disease
 Cooperation with medical care	Strong ✓	Limited	Limited

Barriers to entry

- ① Under-developed legal system
- ② Elderly-care is 100% user-borne
- ③ Lack of business standards
- ④ Scarce human resources
- ⑤ Lack of social recognition

Possible Solutions

- ① Responsible departments
- ② Partially covered by SI and / or Tax
- ③ Regulate elderly care businesses
- ④ Training and qualifications
- ⑤ Socially shared values

How is Deloitte helping various stakeholders in shaping suitable solutions for the elders?
